RESULTS AT LAKESIDE.

Colonel Hamilton was absent from Lakeside Tuesday having gone home to Kentucky to look after political affairs. The racing, however, went along in good style with occasion for some sharp action in the judges stand.

Secretary Martin Nathanson assisted by Tom Chivington presided over the racing. As the Harry Nutter race had rather a bad look they wasted no time in taking action, and the result is that jockey McQuade, who rode Harry Nutter, and his employer, Hugh McCarren, have been suspended pending further investigation, and in the meantime the further entry of Harry Nutter will be refused. Mr. A. C. Clark, who owns Harry Nutter, is not suspected of any wrong doings and is in no way mixed up with the judges' decision. Neither is "Hack" Blum, who trains for Clark.

McQuade's ride, the judges said, was a suspicious looking one, and if, on further investigation, it comes out that the boy was not riding to win and was following McCarren's instructions, both will be punished to the fullest extent of Turf Congress laws. Of course all parties concerned will be given a chance to clear themselves, and may succeed in doing so.

The Harry Nutter race was fifth on the program and the erratic son of Harry O'Fallon—Vena N. was a strong favorite at about 6 to 5. He ran more like a 100 to 1 chance than a favorite, and after being run into the fence down the backstretch, eventually finished fifth and a long way back. Prince Blazes, after a long let-up and at a long price, won the race by a narrow margin from Volandies. The finish between this pair was an extremely close one, but the judges made no mistake when they hung out number "4." Some of the weaker minded ones in the crowd thought they did, but they were greatly in the minority and the slight noise they made was not lasting.

Everything taken into consideration the racing was as good as that which has marked any other day during the meeting. The finishes as a rule were close and starter Dwyer was in excellent form, sending the fields away quickly and as a rule well bunched. It was a pleasant afternoon and the attendance was above the average.

Ennomia, at the tempting price of 8 to 1, scored in a sensational way in the third race and this seemed to put the crowd into the best of humor. E. Scherrer rode Ennomia and during the early stages of the journey it did not seem that the filly had a chance to finish anywhere but last. She took a notion to run, however, on the far turn and the way she moved toward the front was inspiring to witness, and when straightened away for home she was second to Catastrophe, but below the eighth post she passed him and eventually won easily.

The first race went to Miss Fee, the 8 to 5 favorite, who was ridden to perfection by Mitchell. Then jockey Newcom came out of his trance, and on Fantasy came home with the long end of the purse in the second event.

Tom Hayes took the three-quarters of a mile two-year-old race with Red Cross II., who was an odds-on choice at 3 to 5.

Then came the Harry Nutter race, and later the sport was brought to a close by Canace driving and staggering home about a half length in front of Brulare.

"Bud" May with his entire string of horses and jockey Winkfield left last night for Newport. It was Mr. May's first intention to ship home but at the last minute his father telegraphed him to ship to Newport.

Mr. Robinson, owner of Walkenshaw, was at the track and said the story circulated about his winning a fortune on his horse Monday was without foundation.

There will be a big sale of horses in training at Lakeside Saturday.

CALIFORNIA TURF GOSSIP.

Eddie Jones is one of the fastest boys in the country to get away from the post, and there was considerable gossip among the jockeys as to how he would acquit himself when he hooked up with Tommy Burns. One little pilot bet seventy-five cents to fifty cents that Jones would beat Burns away from the post the first time they met in California, and he cashed. Jones on Ricardo beat Burns on Judge Wofford in the race on Tuesday, and there was a happy little jockey.—San Francisco Examiner.

The Oakland judges have warned the stable of J. S. Gibson away from the track. George Howson, the trainer for the stable, has been denied the privileges of the track, and jockey Coburn has been ruled off. The horses involved are Snips, February and Alaska. The great improvement shown by Alaska caused the judges to act.

William Murry has an addition of three to his string. They are coming two-year-olds. One is by Dr. Nave, a son of Prince Charley, and two are by St. Carlo.

The stables of W. P. Magrane and Pat Corrigan reached Oakland Thursday night from Chicago. The latter has the good filly Silver Fitz. Prince Poniatowski is to sell the fifteen yearlings now at his Burlingame stock farm at public auction in the near future.

It is expected that there will be fully 400 entries for the California Futurity from California alone.

James Woods, father of Jockey Woods, has purchased Marplot from Burns & Waterhouse.

Golden Rule will be reserved for the three-year-old races next spring.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A recent letter from London to the Morning Telegraph says:

"In regard to the American thoroughbreds, it is hardly likely that any left-handed thrusts of the Weatherbys will prevent our turfmen from buying and racing your good stock. We see American-bred horses winning important races every week, and often several in a week. The stake record of the recent Newmarket meetings is wonderfully eloquent in this direction. No less than three stakes and two purses were won by American horses at the First October, while exactly the same record was made by your representatives at the Second October. The remarkable succession of victories at this week's Houghton meeting is too fresh in your minds to need recapitulation now, and I am sure that the facts support my contention that Stud Book eccentricities of the Weatherbys cannot militate against the racing usefulness and our appreciation of the American horses."

Charles F. McMeekin, acting for his former partner, Col. W. E. Applegate, today sold to J. B. Respass, of Covington, for $1,700, a pair of very good looking yearlings. One is the chestnut colt, by Onondaga—Japonica, dam of Prince of Darkness, Hope, Hopful, Boro, etc., by Lever. The other is the black colt, by Badge—Mattie Rapture, dam of Escay, etc., by Rapture. They will be shipped to Latonia tomorrow to be put in training. Milton Young has sold to Frank Jones the two-year-old colt Specific.

Winner—Ch. f. by The Hero—Little Grove Queen.

Off at the first break to a good start. Won hand ridden, but staggering and out to the last ounce. It was a terrific drive for second place. Mitchell rode a good race for Miss Fee. He nursed the filly along cleverly and never made a move until straightened away for home, then he shot to the front like a flash. Niverna hung on gamely through the stretch. She was favored by good racing luck throughout. Terralene ran the best race of the lot. She was last to leave the post and was worn out in the first half in trying to make up lost ground. Naturally after this the filly quit badly at the end. Syra ran a fair race and Jim Turner a good one. The latter was running great guns at the finish. Farrie was badly interfered with and whatever chance she had of winning was ruined shortly after the start. Do not count this race for her. Miss Vallera moved up rapidly on the inside on the far turn, but at the head of the stretch she got into a jam and her rider had to pull her up.

Overweights—Syra, 2 pounds.

Corrected weights—BaIRD, 98 pounds.

Miss Fee, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Niverna, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Terralene, show, 4 to 5. Farrie, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. La Carina, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f. by Fonso—Eva S.

Off at the first break to a fair start. Won cleverly; second and third were under pressure. Fantasy ran a good race and was well handled. Newcom had her on the outside in the best going all the way and never made a wrong move. Del Paso II. ran right to his notch. His price was out of line. Uarda is a deceiver. She flattered her backers for about three-quarters and then weakened. Prospero and Tip Gallant both ran cracking good races. They were unfortunate at the start and after getting the worst of the break made up a lot of ground. Jim McCleevy ran a fair race, but it was hardly good enough for him. He had bad racing luck, however, and the track was not to his liking. Elidad was slow to begin, but finished strongly. Henry of Tractamare showed no speed at all.

Scratched—15514 Pay the Fiddler, 100; 15537 Teuton, 103; 15537 Ein, 112; 15489 Inverary II., 104; 15538 Refugee, 104; 15509 Donna Rita, 104; 15509 Rollins, 112.

Winner—Br. f. by Blazes—Planetta.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily at the end after a hard, early drive. There was little or no action behind the winner. Enomia won a sensational race. She looked hopelessly beaten and was many lengths behind the last horse when passing the stand and on the first turn. Down the backstretch the filly gained on her field but hardly enough to be noticeable. Shortly after passing the half-mile ground Enomia started to move up and showing a phenomenal burst of speed was second when the stretch was reached. She then clearly outgamed Catastrophe and won going away. Vitito, on Catastrophe, perhaps made his run too soon. Moroni was overweighted. He does not seem to be at his best. Fascade wants a deep, muddy or sloppy track to show at his best. Lillian Reed and Fair Deceiver both showed speed but retired early.

Enomia, place, 3 to 1; show, evens. Catastrophe, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Moroni, place, 7 to 10; show, out. Fascade, place, evens; show, out.

Winner—Ch. c. by Onondaga—Rosella.

Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second, third and fourth under keen pressure. Red Cross II. was much the best and in a soft spot. He raced Emma M. into submission in the first three-sixteenths, and after that had everything his own way. From the head of the stretch home Mitchell was easing the colt up. Microscope made up a tremendous amount of ground from the half mile post home. In fact, at the point mentioned the colt seemed hopelessly out of it. Kittie G. also made up a lot of ground from a slow beginning and after being badly interfered with. Felix Bard showed speed, but quit when the pinch came. Tom Gilmore seems to be of little or no present account.

Scratched—15490 Tommy O'Brien, 110.

Overweights—Emma M., 4 pounds; Felix Bard, 2.
Red Cross II., place, out. Microscope, place, 7 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Kittie G., show, 2 to 1. Bicolor, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Blazes—Bettie Prince.

Post 11 minutes. Start good. The first four were under full sail. Prince Blazes, who is never beaten until the wire is reached, came with one of his sensational rushes and won in the last stride. The Prince is one of the gamest horses at the track. He is fresh and good now and deserves attention in any company over a distance of ground. Mitchell was a trifle overconfident on Volandies. He seemed to have the race at his mercy at the head of the stretch and let Prince Blazes on the inside steal a march on him. Duke of Baden quit badly in the stretch.

Boney Boy was possibly short. This race will be of benefit to him. Harry Nutter could not outrun a fat man and over his poor showing the judges took sharp action. They have suspended jockey McQuade, his employer Hugh McCarran, and will refuse Harry Nutter's entry until further investigation is made.

Overweights—Volandies, 5 pounds; Duke of Baden, 2.

Prince Blazes, place, 4 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Volandies, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Duke of Baden, show, 1 to 2. Boney Boy, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Harry Nutter, place, 4 to 5; show, out.

Winner—Ch. f. by Creighton—Nellie B.

Off at the first break to a good start. Won driving and staggering and out to the last ounce; second, third and fourth were also very busy. Canace ran as though stale and also got a weak ride. This filly is a stayer and in all of her best races has come from behind gamely. In this race she weaved first from one side then to the other and Winkfield did not seem to have any control over her. Brulare showed fine speed and ran a good race. Diggs was a very tired horse at the finish. McAlbert had no excuses. Banish ran a bad race. So did both Easter Card and Newgatherer.

Scratched—(15491) Little Jack Horner, 104.

Canace, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Brulare, place, 3 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Diggs, show, 8 to 5. Banish, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Newgatherer, place, 3 to 2; show, 7 to 10.
